

PROJECT MANAGER

GreenYellow Indian Ocean is currently recruiting a Project Manager (position based in Mauritius)

Type of contract: permanent

Localisation: Pamplemousses

Country: Mauritius

Missions:

Management of the execution phase of photovoltaic projects, energy efficiency and energy services from signature of the contract to customer delivery.

Main activities:

- Coordinate and supervise the various activities as well as all the stakeholders assigned to the project cell of a given project over all the constituent phases of the period of execution;
- Ensure the execution deadlines as well as the establishment, updating and monitoring of the consolidated schedule of a given project;
- Ensure responsibility for the budget and associated margin of a given project as well as the monitoring, regular updating of the elements constituting the commitments and the leftovers to be done for budget monitoring in collaboration with the finance department;
- Ensure the implementation of a monthly project report to the N+1 including financial performance indicators and progress reports for the various phases of the implementation period;
- Ensure the issuance, monitoring and invoicing for a given project;
- Define the execution strategy to be implemented;
- Ensure planning and to comply with the commitments of the client;
- Be the customer contact point for all operational matters during the execution phase;
- Monitor and coordinate, including budgets, external EOMs & BTCs throughout the deployment period;
- Consolidate and validate the technical file of the works executed and send it to the Operation & Maintenance department concerned by the project being monitored.

Profile:

You have extensive knowledge in the photovoltaic sector (min. 5 years of experience). Dynamic and autonomous, rigorous, you have a taste to be on site with a real sense of customer contact. The challenges motivating you, you want to join a group in strong development and put your know-how at the service of a company with real human values.

Compulsory driving licence

Qualifications:

Degree of Master Degree in Engineering

Experience:

Min. 5 years